HISTORICAL PLACES IN INDIA

RED FORT

more about RED FORT 👍

The Red Fort, also known as Lal Qila is a magnificent historical monument located in Delhi, India. Built during the Mughal era, it served as the residence of the Mughal emperors for nearly 200 years. The fort's striking red sandstone walls and intricate architectural details make it a prominent symbol of India's rich cultural heritage. Today, the Red Fort stands as a popular tourist attraction and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, attracting visitors from all over the world to marvel at its grandeur and learn about its historical significance.

DID YOU KNOW? "It took almost 10 years to construct this fort. The construction was started by Ustam Hamid and Ustad Ahmed in 1638 and was completed in 1648."

HAWA MAHAL

more about HAWA MAHAL 👍

Hawa Mahal, also known as "Palace of Breeze", was built in 1799 as an extension to the Royal City Palace of Jaipur. The mahal has a total of 953 small casements each with small lattice worked pink window, balconies and arched roofs with hanging cornices. This allows cool breeze blow through the mahal and keep it cool and airy in summer. Hawa Mahal looks like a crown of Lord Krishna, which is significant to the devotion of Sawai Pratap Singh in Lord Krishna.

DID YOU KNOW? "Hawa Mahal is the tallest building without any foundation in the world."

GOL GUMBUZ

more about GOL GUMBUZ 👍

Gol Gumbaz is the most famous monument in Vijayapura. It is the tomb of Mohammed Adil Shah (ruled 1627-1657). It is the Second Largest Dome ever built, next in size only to St Peter's Basilica in Rome. A particular attraction in this monument is the central chamber, where every sound is echoed Seven Times. Another attraction at the Gol Gumbaz is the Whispering Gallery, where even minute sounds can be heard clearly 37 metres away. Gol Gumbaz complex includes a mosque, a Naqqar Khana (a hall for the trumpeters) (now it is used as museum) and the ruins of guest houses.
